Host an MCE Class or Required Membership Training

Many member firms take advantage of SWRA's educational offerings by having specific classes taught just for the agents. There are space and attendance requirements, but it is a nice way to make completing education requirements easier for the agents in your office. Please contact Paula Tansey at 610-560-4900 or ptansey@suburbanwestrealtors.com for more information.

Help your agents and business take off with an Office Education Program from SWRA!
